I. PURPOSE

To describe conditions and procedures for imposing restricted movement in the Iowa Department of Corrections (IDOC) institution or portions of an institution.

II. POLICY

It is the policy of the IDOC that the Warden/Superintendent or designee may, when faced with a threat to the security of the institution or to the safety of the public, employees or offenders, temporarily confine one, several, or all units of the institution to restore and maintain order and/or pending investigation.
